- Public affairs committee: Christina – reviewed status of website and explained that the content needs to be filled on the website and the committee is reviewing and requesting help for writing for the website content. Cristina is asking to please help and review the website and anywhere that you see anything to please comment. Please request to be part of the telegram room. OSJ public affairs committee is the name of the room and if you want access let Ross or Cristina know. Michael stated the following: We want to develop content, which means we want to write some things that would interest people. We want to have educational ideas of what people need to know even what you feel like you need to know, to be comfortable in what we've been talking about. And so, all the chatter and conversation and expression should be on this one OSJA Public Affairs channel, and you can be back and forth with Christina or Ross on telegram.
- Ross announced Law Common to I and Dave will be in Franklin County on Thursday at 7:00pm speaking. Ross stated that we will be sharing knowledge regarding Law Common to I and/or you can purchase if that what is the will.
- Michael motioned to close old business and Cristina seconded
- Ross motioned to open new business and Michael seconded.
- Cristina reviewed the disclaimer on the website and reviewed the meaning and the intention.
- Discussion and waring reviewed on other sovereign citizen type organizations and how it does not align with our OSJA
- Review of the meaning of a sponsor as it regards to the OSJA; it was decided that there is a responsibility of the person bringing a new member in to the group. New members need to be walked through and vetted to make sure they align with the with the OSJA standards. It was decided we would use the name mentor instead of sponsor.
- Website funding please donate to Michael to reimburse the people who have put the money forward for the website – or please send to Ross or Cristina and receipt to Michael, you can reach out to him RealFoodDude@protonmail.com
- Ross motioned to close new business and Erin seconded.
- Ross motioned to adjourn the meeting and Michael seconded
- Meeting adjourned at 7:58pm and November 1, 2022, is the next meeting.
