Cristina reminds us that anyone sharing recordings needs to be a papered member of OSJA, and recordings can only be shared with papered members;
Ross says this is in the bylaws.

Open Old Business – Ross motions, Michele and Joe second

Old Business:

- Michele reads minutes from 1/17; vote to accept minutes as read: 6 yeas, 0 abstain
- Website update: not ready yet; Charley is working hard to work out the bugs.
- Although ohio.juralassembly.org is not up, any county in any state can set up their own state assembly site on juralassembly.org.
- Cristina is still interested in the bailiff position but doesn't really want to sit on 2 chairs;
-no bailiff has been nominated; once a nomination is made and seconded, we defer for a week and then vote on it; annual voting takes place in September.
- Treasury update: no updates.

Close Old Business - Kat motions, Michael seconds

Open New Business – Michael motions, Cristina seconds

New Business:

- Gary is returning in 2 months; Gary is Chief Justice of OSJA.
- Kathy reminds us of 1/26 meeting in Reynoldsburg at 7pm; not an official COS meeting;
Ross and Cristina are attending; address pasted into chat:
6502 E. Main Street, Reynoldsburg, OH 43105
- Ross says prayer for Gary.

- Cristina states that it has come to light that in some COS meetings, conflicts between people acting in/researching common law and people who want to go to court without a lawyer;
- those who have studied common law are confused about which way to go;
-  main point here is that people need to know both sides of this – the legal side and the common law side;
- most people don't know the difference between lawful and legal and it confuses people;
- those who don't know common law challenge it and say it doesn't work; these same people just want to learn to win in legal court without a lawyer.

Close New Business - Ross motions, Kat seconds

7:57 Cristina motions to adjourn; Michael seconds

Next meeting is Tuesday January 31, 2023
