Victor - Tuscarawas

Open Old Business – Michele motions, Joe seconds

Old Business:

-Treasury update – no changes since January 17

-Public Affairs – nothing new to report

-Cristina nominates herself for bailiff; Michele seconds the nomination

-Ross motions to vote tonight rather than deferring a week; Kathy and Michele second

-vote results: 7 yeas; 0 nays; 0 abstains

-Website update:

-still need volunteers to review documents;

-working session last night on Telegram but Telegram doesn't have an option to record;

-reminder that Telegram can be a good option to Zoom;

-Michele reads minutes from 1/24:

-change "voting takes place in September" to "annual voting takes place in September";

-add comment "main point is people need to know both sides – legal side and common law side" to last bullet point of Old Business;

-vote to accept minutes as corrected: 6 yeas, 2 abstain

Close Old Business - Cristina motions, Merida seconds

Open New Business – Merida motions, Cristina and Joe second

New Business:

-Nathan from Summit wants to resign from OSJA;

-Cristina says resignation paperwork was provided to Nathan;

-discussion takes place about resignation/renouncing process and enrollment process;

-it is noted that Nathan's reasons for leaving is that he doesn't believe in the common law jural assembly, which prompts a discussion about relationship between common law and jural assembly (see recording);

-Merida states Cristina will be discussing common law (legal vs lawful) in Medina;

-Victor reminds us of two sayings:

“If you don’t stand for something, you will fall for anything” and

“United we stand, divided we fall”

-Ross wants to correct the record: he is working with Mark the moderator in Tuscarawas

Close New Business - Cristina motions, Kathy seconds

8:00 Cristina motions to adjourn; Kathy seconds

Next meeting is Tuesday February 7, 2023
