Old Business:

-website update:

-Ross talked about Charley presenting the site last night, and reminds us that real-time change ability has been built into the site;

-Kat says that site appears to be a good fit for the OSJA needs;

-Cristina added some members on the call to the OSJA Public Affairs Committee chat room in Telegram at this point in the meeting;

-Ross brings up Preble County ballots and asks if BOE has a rule that they are breaking or if this is just a “let’s be heard” situation?

-Cristina says that Michael is talking to Troy about a project he is working on; and Dave is talking to Troy about a vehicle registration process; she will provide more information on these as it becomes available;

-Michele reads minutes from 3/21/23;

-vote to accept minutes as read: 8 yeas, 2 abstains; 0 nays;

-Ross asks Kat for more information on her hemp initiative; Kat provides an overview of the uses and benefits of hemp, followed by questions/answers; see recording for details; sites mentioned for your own use/research were: Canadian Hemp, Hemp Build magazine, Global Hemp Association;

-Telegram access update was discussed; see recording for details;

Close Old Business - Cristina motions, Joe and Tim second.

Open New Business – Cristina motions, Joe and Tim second.

New Business:

- Cristina tells us that Michael attended a seminar in Westerville and has information about what OSJA does vs what State Nationals do;
- Cristina explains website expenses and says that any donations would be helpful; she also reminds us that things take time and disappointment is understandable, but thanks everyone for their patience and understanding while we continue to await the site launch;
- Kathy asks if anyone is interested in attending a meeting in Reynoldsburg with Felicia Beverly about negotiable instruments and bill pre-pay process;
- Kat tells us that a person loosely associated with the Palace Theater in Lorain said the theater could be interested in hosting events so that might be a good option for in person gatherings;

Close New Business - Cristina motions, Joe and Tim second.

8:13 Cristina motions to adjourn, Joe and Tim second.

Next meeting is Tuesday April 4, 2023
