- Ross resumes the discussion on clarifying the Bylaws position on elimination of controversy. Michael notes that there needs to be a more formal Code of Honor. See recording.
- Cristina thanks everyone for their dedication to our shared mission and reminds of the need for website content and commentary from all OSJA members.
- In light of the unconfirmed yet apparent resignation of Tim and Karla, Ross shares his in-progress compilation of evidence from recorded videos from past meetings to wrap up the recent controversy and restore us all to honor.
- Dave emphasizes the need for us all to refocus on the greater mission and responsibility to all mankind, grab the bull by the horns and get fired up by the growing opportunities due to the current state of affairs in the world.

Outreach is imperative, right now!
