NOW COMES the man, joseph edward senk, Executor, in sui juris, in response to the State’s CONSOLIDATED BRIEF IN OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT’S MOTION TO HAVE NEW COUNSEL APPOINTED AND EXERCISE UNALIENABLE RIGHTS. Respectfully submits to the court that The State’s brief is without merit and should be dismissed with prejudice on the following grounds:

- 1) The State proposes that the request to appoint new counsel is based on the desire to have counsel of My choosing; were this the case, a firm or person would have been referenced in the request; instead, testimony was given of several instances of current court-appointed Attorney Greven’s recalcitrant stance as de facto co-counsel for The State-attitude towards his client; See attached Akron Bar Association Grievance form, filed this date;
- 2) The State’s argument against the God-given, constitutionally protected rights of sovereign Americans is, if not wholly morally repugnant, with grave fundamental categorization errors. According to (case law upholding the rights of Americans to demand common law jurisdictional authority)

Further affiant sayeth naught.
