Subject: Hamilton County Clerk of Courts Response

To: keithmauger740@gmail.com <keithmauger740@gmail.com>

Dear Mr. Mauger,

The Hamilton County Clerk of Courts has reviewed the document submitted to this office. The submission does not constitute a valid filing under Ohio law, and no case has been opened.

The Clerk of Courts is authorized to accept and docket only those filings that are recognized by the Ohio Revised Code and applicable local rules. Your submission does not meet these requirements. Specifically:

- It does not present a complaint, petition, motion, or other initiating document recognized by an Ohio court.
- It seeks actions that the Clerk's Office has no legal authority to perform.
- It attempts to proceed outside the statutory and procedural framework governing courts in the State of Ohio.

The Clerk of Courts is a ministerial office. The Clerk cannot create a case, convene a court, or evaluate claims unless and until a proper filing is submitted in compliance with Ohio law. The Clerk also cannot provide legal advice or guidance on how to frame claims.

Because the submission does not comply with the requirements for filing, it is rejected and will not be docketed. No summons will issue, and no further action will be taken on this submission.

Any future document must comply with the Ohio Revised Code, the Ohio Rules of Civil or Criminal Procedure, and applicable local rules to be accepted for filing.

Regards,

Nick Anderson, JD

Assistant Chief, Compliance
